

The Mason Brothers Concert

Paul and Wayne are doing their first gig here in New Plymouth at the 4th Wall Theatre, on Saturday 27th April 7.30pm. Tickets $20. They will be playing an acoustic guitar and string bass duo, harmonised vocals, with some piano. The songs will be a wander through Wayne's fifty years of song writing with Fourmyula, Rockinghorse and Warratahs, and his solo recordings. It's a bit of a special New Plymouth celebration as New Plymouth is where Wayne was born 70 years ago. ("Nature" was written fifty years ago.) They have sung together before but this is the first time they have played together. Letting you know now so that if you want to go you can arrange your diaries. Please let Paul know if you need any more details (bowers- mason@orcon.net.nz). Tickets will be on sale in late February.

Church Book Sale

This is to be arranged for the end of March. Please keep your books and magazines and once the date has been set we will let you know.

Gospel of Luke

Next week we will start a series of messages on "Following Jesus", as we look at the major themes in the Gospel of Luke. This will take us up to Easter. Please feel to read Luke's Gospel this week!
